

KEEPING HOLY WEEK TOGETHER

Holy Week this year coincides with our returning to worship in our church buildings, and we hope you'll be able to join us, either in person or on line, as we prepare together for Easter.

Even so, this Easter will feel different. Our services are likely to be simpler. Face coverings, hand sanitiser, careful distancing and well ventilated buildings all remain part of our life and worship. Though there will be music, there can't be singing together, and even in the warmth of Spring, you may want to think about bringing a rug or an extra sweater to a ventilated church.

And our usual provision continues on line, with some services streamed on our Halas Team facebook page - especially Maundy Thursday 7:30pm Eucharist from Cradley, Good Friday Evening from St John's and Easter Morning from Lapal.

Palm Sunday marks our return to Gathered Services in Church again. Public Health Dudley have suggested that this is the Sunday on which our communities should feel ready to return to public worship safely, and that fits in well with the advice from Worcestershire and Bromsgrove.

Our services will probably feel simpler than in past years - processions won't be possible in the same way for instance - and our present online provision will continue as normal on Halas Team Facebook and halasteam.org alongside our services in church.

We are preparing a series of Holy Week Meditations to guide us through the story in Mark's gospel — together, with each of our priests and readers taking a different moment from the story, and a different day to reflect on. They'll be available in church, included in the Holy Week postal mailing, and emailed out each day, and recordings of those meditations will be on the Halas Team Facebook page by 7:30pm each evening, and on the halasteam.org website.

In Church:

Normally, through the first days of Holy Week, all five churches would be together in one place, but this year we still need to arrange our worship in ways that don't encourage the free mixing of different households

Walking the way of the Cross

Eight child-size stations of Jesus' Passion, the last three days of his life, will be in St Peter's Churchyard Cradley from 28 March to 11 April. A QR code will take you to a recording of the story and some reflection questions. Questions for discussion will be on site.

If you're visiting St John's during the hours of the cross (12 til 3) on Good Friday, there will be prayers and readings to guide you round our unique models representing the traditional episodes on Jesus' journey with his cross.

If you received this leaflet through the letterbox you should have a small Palm Cross, made by the Massai and blessed with our prayers for you and your home. Palm Crosses will be available in church through the week too. If you've missed out, please let us know and we'll get one to you.

A HAPPY AND BLESSED EASTER TO EVERYONE!

After Easter Day we look forward to returning to a regular pattern of Sunday and weekday worship - not quite the same as a year ago, but these next three months will be a time to plan for the long term future.
